RED CROSS DONATIONS LAG AT THE HALFWAY MARK OF THE DRIVE

Mark Dailey, chairman of the 1948-49 Red Cross Fund Drive of Sierra Madre, calls to the attention of the citizens of the City of Sierra Madre that to date we have collected a trifle over half of the necessary funds to reach our budget. We know that you will not let YOUR Red Cross down—if you have given your donation, won't you please try to add a little to that and bring it to the office of the Sierra Madre Chapter of the American Red Cross, near the Post Office.

The City of Sierra Madre just simply cannot let the Red Cross drive fail for the first time in its history—the folks in our town just aren't built that way.

The Red Cross expended $75,000 during its 45-day emergency program to provide assistance to Navajo and Hopi Indian families. The Red Cross provided food and clothing for 5,508 persons composing 1,177 families between December 15th and January 1st, 1948. This was possible by the generous support of the American people during the 1947 March Fund Campaign.

The American Junior Red Cross through its National Children's Fund has allotted $28,000 for supplies and equipment in addition to the $75,000 for emergency relief. Also a current program calling for the distribution of $23,000 worth of wool blankets, educational equipment, toys, first-aid kits and eyeglasses will be completed by the end of the school term. All for the Navajo and Hopi Indians.

BLOOD BANK PROGRAM

The program for the Blood Bank to supply all civilians in the U.S.A. with blood when needed, absolutely free, is under way and will require $15,000,000 in 1948-49.

These and all of the regular functions of the American Red Cross require money and a lot of it.

The Red Cross asks for help only once a year—but is ready to help you all year.

EASTER SERVICE AT INSPIRATION POINT CROSS

Easter Morning Services will be held this year at Inspiration Point on Vista Circle Drive. This annual service will take place at 6:30 and will be conducted by W. H. Polgreen of the Salvation Army. All are invited to help make the sunrise service a spiritual success.

YEAR'S GAS TAX REVENUE FROM STATE ESTIMATED TO BE AROUND $18,000

A letter from the Dept. of Public Works at Sacramento was read at the Council meeting on Tuesday evening stating that it is estimated that Sierra Madre will receive $18,270 from the gas tax revenues allocated for the 1948-49 fiscal year. This is based on the recent census figures of 6,669 inhabitants.

A budget showing the proposed program of public works planned for the year on which the money will apply, must be filed by June 1.

Water Supt. Jos. Swanson presented a request for authorization to purchase an all-steel building, at a cost of $865 for materials, to replace the old shake building now protecting the weir house below the Little Sierra Madre dam, at the upper end of Woodland Drive.

Mr. Swanson explained to the NEWS reporter that the dictionary says a "weir" is a dam. In 1926 a storm carried logs down and demolished the building and it took a month to get the logs out. Pieces of wood got into the mains and it was five years

Community Life Theme of PTA Meet

"Foundations of Healthful Community Life" will be the theme of the PTA meeting to be held on Thursday, March 18th, at 2:45 P. M. in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Sybil Richardson, psychologist from the Guidance Division of the County Department of Education, will talk on the physical, emotional and intellectual development of the child, and there will be a period for questions and discussion from the floor.

Tea will be served by the 3rd and 4th grade mothers.

The meeting this month is being held a week earlier than usual because of the Easter vacation.

Youth Building Club Aim

The Youth Activity Committee of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, met with other civic organizations recently to discuss a permanent youth building. They feel the increase in population of the city makes the present facilities of the Park House inadequate for youth recreation purposes.

A definite decision will be contingent upon a thorough survey of all phases of the youth needs in the community. Proceeds of the Annual Wistaria Queen's Ball will be donated to the Youth Fund.

ELECTION FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEES SET FOR MAY 21st; SELECTION OF NEW BUILDING SITE OPEN

A special open meeting of the School Board will be held next Monday at 8 p. m. to consider the setting of a date for a bond election to raise funds for badly needed expansion of Sierra Madre's school.

This was decided Wednesday night at the regular meeting of the school trustees. At this same time the board members announced that in compliance with state law the annual school trustees election would be held next May 21.

It was understood that nearly a dozen persons prominent in Sierra Madre civic activities would appear before the board next Monday night at the school cafeteria to urge that a bond issue be presented to city voters so that construction of additional classrooms might be started by next fall.

Approved by the board at its Wednesday meeting was a tentative contract with a Los Angeles architect, Ralph C. Flewelling, for preliminary studies.

Flewelling has indicated that a new building to house six classrooms, a kindergarten and a small administrative unit would cost approximately $179,000, including the site. This rough estimate, however, is sub-

In his preliminary studies, the architect pointed out that it would take this number of classrooms to relieve overcrowding in the present school building and to provide room for the expected increase in school children by 1952.

Based on anticipated population growth of Sierra Madre beyond the 45 percent increase during the past seven years, estimates revealed that there will be 800 students attending school here within four years. There are now 675 in school, including seventh and eighth graders for whom space is not provided in present planning.

School board members have indicated that there is no adequate solution to the school problem faced by Sierra Madre—other than a bond issue for new construction.

Under consideration for a building site is five acres of the city-owned property on the south side of Grandview avenue east of Canyon avenue.

This property, it was pointed out, is more centrally located for the heavy school population than any other site available for school construction. School board members have expressed themselves in favor of acquiring this property from the city because of the resulting saving to city taxpayers. Ultimate purchase, however, would depend upon agreement with the city council.

Before the school board may purchase any land for school use, the site must have the approval of both the County Flood Control District and the Division of Schoolhouse Planning of the State Department of Education. These agencies must pass on the suitability and safety factor of land selected.

The school housing problem, which has steadily increased with Sierra Madre's population growth, was placed before the city's civic organizations by a special investigating committee of the Parent-Teacher Association last week.

In a report to the school board copies of which were sent to all civic clubs and groups, the committee said that because of overcrowding, children were being deprived of proper schooling and that any improvement in a number of appalling conditions is dependent upon "the providing of additional space."

One school board member will be elected at the special election.

POLICE BLOTTER

Boys throwing rocks. An anonymous called to report that dogs about town are being treated cruelly. (I bet there are lots of folks who would want to.) Shooting doves fires a lady who objects. LOST LICENSE PLATE. A "T.C." A trailer swings toward a step of a P.E. car. Brush on the sidewalk. Street lights out. "Dog with fits." Doesn't fit the occasion. Burning trimmings causes trouble to a lady who is allergic to smoke. When a thoutful man that he recognized a small two-year-old girl as one he knew, he took her to the home suspected. He was wrong. The cops were called and just as the police car was about to go in search of a frantic mother or dad, the frantic father appeared. The lost child was little Louise Raper of Los Angeles, who was visiting at the home of Don Miller with her parents. She was glad to see Daddy. A stray dog at the door of "The Rikemans" refused to have anything to do with the cops. The dog did move from the region and was followed far up Baldwin Avenue, where it found its master, a small boy on his way home. A "502" suspected entering a car. Chief of Police McMillan is asked to remove a poisonous shrub from the yard of a lady. The Chief found the bush to be harmless elderberry. No berries, but he got the razz when he came in. Sick dog put to sleep by the Vet. More furniture missing from a rented house. A five-year-old boy wandered to the region of the Canyon, far from his home on Bonita, Dan Parker, who lives up there, found him. Lewis investigated a possible fire. Advised that heating system be turned off until inspected by an expert. "Prowler." "Water Leak." "Doctor-Wanted." A man fell from his attic. An ambulance was needed. Another auto accident. A lady driver complained of being closed in when a car on each end of her's was too close. (Don't blame her for squawking.) Youths who are old enough to drive autos, surely must lack something when they will do such dastardly acts as throw articles at homes. Hard lemons are capable of breaking windows. An injured squirrel in the canyon district breathed its last on the arrival of the police. It had fallen off a steep embankment. They are getting almost extinct. We must take better care of them. Too many cats are helping to eliminate them from our woods. A lady who tired of reading while seated in her car gave the appearance of mystery when she closed her eyes. A fine looking specimen she was, that Jim Heasley, as she opened her large brown eyes. House broken into. DOG HIT BY A CAR. Two boys from Long Beach were investigated by the police officers when they were found studying the stars. A car that slipped the brakes to leave the yard of its owner was reported as stolen. Hi' Embree cleared up the mystery. Stolen manhole covers were found to have been delivered to the wrong city. Unfounded. "Grease on the sidewalk." Plugged drain is soon fixed. Someone knocked over a barricade in their attempt to get the car into the ditch. Loud shrieks of "HELP, POLICE, MURDER, HELP, POLICE!" bring the coppers on the run. It was found to be a family affair until further developments. After Bill Chunn had worked most of the night, he was not in favor of attempting to ride a stray horse that the Blomquists of South Baldwin found in their yard. He called on Jim Heasley to assist him. The horse was led to the pound from the seat of the police car, much more satisfying to Bill. When a fellow dumped rubbish above the Ranger Station, he was cited into court. Suspicious men are investigated.

Collector of Internal Revenue, Harry C. Westover issued an appeal to Southern California taxpayers to exercise more care in the preparation of their federal income tax returns which are due not later than next Monday, March 15.

"We have on hand at the moment almost 45 million dollars in checks and money orders which we are not able to identify,"

"Unsigned checks run into the thousands. Additional thousands of checks come in with no indication of what tax they are supposed to cover in most cases. There is no address given, so we are unable to communicate with taxpayer. Many checks are so badly that they are unrecognizable."

Less Seen Of Sleeves

This spring, short, short gloves team with short, short sleeves to create a new "bare-armed" look from shoulder to wrist and to make the purchase of your spring gloves an important investment in fashion.

For short gloves in fine leathers are a leading fashion feature for spring. Shorties will go with everything this year; they'll accompany tweed suits, sheer wool afternoon dresses and even cottons. And they'll be most important for after-five and evening dresses.

Fine, hand-sewn French doekin gloves by Kislav, in soft shades of cream and beige, are shown with ballet-length cocktail and evening dresses with brief, cap sleeves, off-the-shoulder necklines and no sleeves at all.

Other short gloves, with a touch of novelty stitching on the back, are matched to rough textured short-sleeved sweaters, to sleeveless blouses and sports dresses. And short glove gloves, as soft as the precious kid gloves of a century ago, accompany filmy organdies and a whole range of light-weight fabrics. Kislav gloves are practical even in the pale shades of this season's fashions, because all of them are washable.

Important as the short glove is, however, it is not the entire glove story. Longer gloves in four or six-button lengths, are perfect with suits, furs and long-sleeved dresses. These longer gloves are smartest in classic, elegant styles and soft, muted colors.

MCDONALD RITES HELD SATURDAY GRANT CHAPEL

The passing of Burton Cecil McDonald at the age of 73, March 4, is deeply felt by his many friends. Although he had been ill for several years, he took an active interest in the Fire and Police departments of the city. For the past two years he has had the Fourth of July Fireman's Picnic on the grounds at his spacious home.

A native of Burlington, Kansas, he came to California in 1907, and has been a resident 15 years, living at 391 North Grove. Mr. McDonald was one of the first probation officers on the Los Angeles County Jail to Provide Dept., and retired four years ago. His hobby, collecting news stories of important events, was started by his father, a Kansas newspaper published, and many items date back to pre-Civil War days.

Besides a wife, Edith M. McDonald, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Esther Frenzel of Ocean-side, a son, Burton C. McDonald Jr., of Los Angeles, and two grandchildren.

Services were Saturday at Grant Chapel with Rev. Carl Smith officiating. Interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

FIRE FLAMES

An early morning fire that occurred Sunday brought out some sleepy looking people. And they were not all fire fighters at that. From an unknown cause, a car owned by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thayer at the Wistaria grounds, caught fire inside. It was discovered after the fire had reached the stage of crackling wood. Because of the alertness of the neighbors and Mr. Thayer, the firemen were called early. Water was also used by neighbor Smith that helped much in keeping the blaze down until the arrival of the fire fighters. A quick response prevented what might have been a tragic fire. The heat was sufficient to char the wood of the garage which was directly connected to the house. Because the police department works with the fire department (as well as endeavoring to do some of the janitor work around the City Hall), the alarm was sounded in an instant after fire was reported. Charlie Brown, (who voluntarily sleeps above the fire station) heard the alarm and was on the truck and away in less time than it takes to say good-bye to a two dollar bill at the window. Marvin Thomas has moved into a house close to the fire station. From what we can learn, he has made this move to see if it is possible to get to the station in time to beat Charlie out with a truck. Altho he was too late this time to be there before Brown, he feels that he has learned a few tricks for the next. He did get away with "Old Snort" in good time and reported that the old faithful truck climbed the hill in great style. And we can once more feel that we are lucky.

There are so many "ifs". If that fire had reached the stage that it had at an hour when the folks were sound asleep, there is not a doubt that there would have been great damage. If the folks had not been "on the ball," and had not done the very best first aid fire fighting that is known, the possibilities of a large and destructive fire is envisioned with ease. If the fire department had not arrived early, there is a decided reason to believe that the fire would have gotten beyond the control of just the small garden hose. However it may be, we, the fire fighters of Sierra Madre, are once more glad that we had the good fortune to leave the place with but a small fire loss. That's what counts, and we are glad to give credit to any one at any time for their fire prevention efforts.

CHICAGO VISITORS IN SOUTHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Craig L. Davidson, 550 West Sierra Madre Blvd., entertained Mr. Davidson's brother, H. F. Davidson, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Graver of the Graver Packing Co., Chicago.

If it were not for the many, many good friends that the fire department has, it would be VERY disheartening to continue trying to do a good job. There are those who seem to think only of what their taxes are going to cost them and who seem to be ever ready to sacrifice safety for the saving of a few pennies each day. They appear as tho' they cannot realize just how much they are receiving and how much good they are doing by paying their taxes. Most of these complaints are folks who can well afford to pay their taxes without sacrificing too many luxuries, while there are those who are ready to pay for anything that means a modern and necessary improvement, and who have little beyond their daily bread. It is a wonder to me which of these folks are the most valuable to a community.

A meeting at the station tonight will bring word of the progress of the committee on arrangements for the coming "Cuss Can" party. It is expected that matters are all set. The drill will be formed by members of the department who had better not forget their responsibility. They will not be forewarned.

A good time party that has been mentioned so often will be the first attempt to bring the husbands and the wives together at a private fire fighters' gathering. The interest and expectations are great. The committee on entertainment has warned that those who do not feel like entering into the fray had better stay at home. There will be no embarrassing moments, nor will there be any dull moments.

You're SURE when you shop SAFEWAY

SURE of full value in meat because...

...all Safeway meats are cut only from top grades... then trimmed waste-free before weighing. See, in the diagram at right, what this means when you buy lamb shoulder roast. Our lamb shoulder roasts are cut to include the full five meaty ribs. Both shank and neck are trimmed away before your purchase is weighed. In contrast, many markets cut off and sell as expensive chops, portions which are included in the Safeway lamb shoulder roast. Many leave the less-tender neck on. Some even fail to remove the heavy shank bone. At Safeway you get, and pay for, only the portion that will cook just right. For meats as for all foods, be sure... shop SAFEWAY.

Chamber Urges Bus Substitute

Substitution of Pacific Electric buses for rail Red Cars between Sierra Madre and San Marino during off-peak hours was urged in a resolution unanimously adopted by the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors this week.

The resolution, submitted by Board Member Frank Spencer called on the California Public Utilities Commission to approve such a change.

It pointed out that Sierra Madre residents would have better service and greater comfort during off-peak hours if buses were used to make a shuttle run to San Marino. In addition, present safety hazards due to the off-center single track on Sierra Madre Boulevard would be reduced, it said.

Spencer's resolution asked that the State commission expedite present plans to conduct a study of traffic and load conditions. The Pacific Electric Company, in the meantime, was conducting a check of its own on the Sierra Madre line.

During the past two years the Chamber of Commerce has advocated such a change. Copies of the resolution were forwarded to the Los Angeles office of the Utilities Commission and to O. A. Smith, president of the Pacific Electric Railway.

FOOD STRETCHING

All together stretch it out. This is no physical training order, but a simple direction for sending your menu in the right direction—budget-wise. The practice of making four servings flourish where only two grew before and of making big servings out of little ones is called "stretching." Rice or noodles extend the meat; biscuits extend the chicken pie; vegetables extend the stew—and all help stretch those precious food dollars.

INTEREST IN NEW COLOR PAINT FOR P. E. STATION DRAWS AN UNEXPECTED RESPONSE FROM TOWNSFOLK

So far -- So Good!

Over 2300 advance orders for Girl Scout cookies are being delivered this week as the local organization heads toward a $1000 goal for the Youth Hut Annex. Mariners and Senior Scouts, as well as council members and leaders will begin direct sale Friday in the business section of the city, according to sales chairman, Mrs. Herman Barter. Tables will be placed at the Post Office, Safeway Store, Bank of Sierra Madre, Pratt's Market and the Mariners will have their booth at the P. E. Station.

"Leave the Pepper Trees" Voiced Unanimous Appeal

Sierra Madreans this week chose a color for their Pacific Electric station, and the choice was unquestionably, GREEN.

Pushing close on the heels of this first choice was BARN RED. The Greens during five days of balloting, which closed last Tuesday, got 88 votes. Barn Red had 73 faithfuls. In all 208 ballots were cast.

The public vote was jointly sponsored by the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce and the Sierra Madre News. The balloting climaxed a successful Chamber of Commerce campaign for renovation of the P. E. station. P. E. officials assured the Chamber that its painting operations would be held up until a color had been decided upon.

Here is the official count:

Green	88
Red	73
White	21
Cream	6
Brown	6
Yellow	5
Grey	1
Pink	1
Metallic Maroon	1

Of the votes for green, the three shades of green exhibited on an artist's sketch in the News window were the principal choices. Those voting for red predominantly chose white trim; those voting for white preferred green trim.

Red (Barn Red, that is) backers got a big boost in the form of two petitions which specified "barn red with white trim and leave the Pepper trees in." One petition, headed by the family of Al W. Miller, carried 23 names. The other had 26 names. A cry of dismay came from most voters, regardless of their color choices, at the suggestion (as indicated by the artist's sketch) that the existing Pepper trees be removed in favor of palms.

T. A. Miller cast a vote for green with white trim and commented, "Only leave the Pepper trees alone."

Mrs. Oscar Willumsen asked that the Pepper trees be allowed to stay "until they are so old they become dangerous. They add to the charm of the station."

Joe A. Hinojos pointed out that: "Twenty-eight years ago the Pepper trees were full, healthy and green. I'd hate to see them go, but if they could be rejuvenated, they should stay. If not, they should be replaced by appropriate substitutes."

There were five ballots which specified no color. Two of them

Although the three greens on the sketch which was drawn for the Chamber of Commerce were preferred, some voters specified such shades as "leaf green." A. J. Dewey suggested that the station be painted a "sage green" with the color taken from the mountain sage with the roof a light grey to reflect the sky and a trim of true bronze.

"This color scheme will lend perfectly with those grand old Pepper trees," Dewey said. Among the many Sierra Madreans taking part in the balloting were Pappy Welch, who chose a green roof with white sides, and P. L. Bonebrake, who preferred a green station with white trim. Harry A. Lange asked for "Emerald Green, Louis Shippey said, "Green."

The ballot of Katherine L. Schwartz said, "Green would be a good color. By all means leave the Pepper trees. They make a cool place for old people to rest."

Many suggested that a fence be placed around the station and that the square be landscaped. Only two persons included in their plans for landscaping the removal of the Pepper trees.

Two of the miscellaneous "ballots" made no suggestions for change. They were votes cast by and for Jon Emerson to be named as painter when the color is decided. The Chamber refers Jon to P. E. Railway which will bear all painting and renovating costs.

MAYOR STEINBERGER REPRESENTS CITY AT DESERT FIESTA

A good Friend, and good friend, Paul B. Johnson, executive secretary of the American Friends Service Committee, has just returned to his home next door from a 600 mile jeep jaunt through the Navajo and Hopi reservations.

He has seen much that we at home must have reflected upon in the recent emergency—recognized plainly what many of us half-suspected and have done nothing much about.

One evening, after a weary 165 mile trip with a missionary, Paul met two Navajo men who had walked many miles to a trading post on a hard road to report the illness of a daughter. She had a "toothache."

The missionary was able to arrange for the ambulance-truck to pick her up the following day and take her 40 miles to a hospital. There she was put in care of the only doctor, an eye specialist, who discovered that the "tooth-ache" was a seriously abscessed jaw.

The treatment consisted of a pain reliever, hope that it would take care of itself, and a plan to take her to the nearest government dentist who was 275 miles away.

At Kaibeto Paul visited a government school where 66 children were having their main meal at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. In the "meanest, barest surroundings imaginable" sat the black-eyed solemn youngsters.

Before each one was an earthenware plate, a spoon and—for a drinking cup—each had a tin can with the top cut off. They ate a soup of meat and hot water; corn bread and pineapple rings.

In the government schools the children are taught to read and "figger." Trades? No. Trade training was closed out on the reservation a year ago for lack of funds.

(What irony for a people whose hands have such skill in contriving pure design in silver, perfection in weaving. Yet their income from those sources is so small as to be discounted.)

Figures on Navajo schooling need no embellishment, but speak for themselves with an awful clarity. Sixty-six per cent of all Navajos have not been exposed to ANY TYPE of education. Thirty-four per cent have been exposed. Thirteen per cent actually can read and write.

But the existing schools can accommodate only 20 per cent of the children presently on the reservation.

So—will the levels slip to 80 per cent with no education, 20 per cent exposed, and 8 per cent who will be able to read and write? What else?

If the Navajo is not acceptable as a worker without education—and how can a man progress if he is unable to read or write the common speech?—then what do you do with a fact like this:

At the largest reservation school which is located at Tuba City, over 1000 children were turned away in the Fall of 1947 for lack of space.

So you see, it isn't just food for empty stomachs, nor used clothing for winter warmth that will solve the Navajo problem. There is a basic wrong somewhere that is being done over and over again until a pattern of hopelessness is set.

The Friends already have established five sewing rooms on the western reservation where used clothing will be remade by Navajo women under direction of other capable Navajo women.

A further project is a summer work camp for college age students, proposing to build a unit of rooms at Tuba City where Navajo families can stay overnight when they come to see a child in boarding school or a patient in the hospital.

Right now, Indian visitors must sleep under their wagons, under a government building or in the local jail.

Says Paul Johnson: "We were happy to share in the material aid program (clothes and food) . . . we did so, however, with a consciousness of its inadequacy as a solution and a lively hope that such a campaign would not be allowed to act either as a sop to the public conscience or as a vehicle for political interest. "We Americans are quick to rise to a crisis, but our memories are inclined to be short."

WAR CAMP SEWER TO AUGMENT DISTRICT 15

As the County trunk sewer is nearing completion in Sierra Madre the recent gift to the District may have more meaning.

Thirteen miles of sewers built early in 1942 by the Federal Government to service the Santa Anita Ordinance Training Center during the war at a cost of $700,000 have been turned over as a gift by the War Assets Administration to County Sanitation District 15.

The trunk sewer system will save the County many thousands of dollars in the operation and maintenance of two pumping stations located one mile south of San Gabriel and at the easterly limits of Monterey Park, which will no longer be needed. In addition, the sewer will service the needs of 140,000 people residing in Sanitation District 15.

Present at the time of the transfer were the mayors of the several incorporated cities in the Sanitation District, who are also members of the Sanitation Board. They are Mayors M. H. Ormsby, of Arcadia; J. Milton Steinberger of Sierra Madre; Reuel E. Brown of Monrovia; Clyde I. Batchelder of West Covina, and Harold M. Lange of San Gabriel.

Casadesus With Stokowski and Philharmonic Sunday

By Tommy Ann Miller

Robert Casadesus, piano virtuoso, is soloist in his own "Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in E Major" with the New York Philharmonic - Symphony under Stokowski, Sunday. Written in 1945, this is the third work for piano and orchestra which Casadesus has composed. He first played it last March. A second novelty in the program is Stravinsky's "Pastorale for Violin, Oboe, English Horn, Clarinet and Bassoon." The Beethoven "Seventh Symphony" will also be played.

Benjamin Britten's much discussed and much performed opera "Peter Grimes" will be the final opera over the Metropolitan broadcast this season. Although excerpts of this work were presented in 1946, this broadcast will mark the American radio premiere in its entirety. Britten wrote the work to a libretto by Montagu Slater who based its story on a poem of George Crabbe, entitled "The Borough." Leading roles will be interpreted by Polyna Stoska, Mack Harrell and Clara Mae Turner.

An all-Brahms program is played by the Philadelphia Orchestra and Eugene Ormandy, opening with "Academic Festival Overture," and "Symphony No. 1 in C Minor." Brahms wrote the graceful "Academic Festival Overture" as an acknowledgment to the University of Breslau which had conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1880. It makes use of four popular German student songs apart from the original thematic material, Brahms himself spoke of it as a "Potpourri on student songs a la Suppe," though his biographer, Max Kalbeck, saw in it an ode to the spirit of freedom, comradeship and joy of living at the old German universities.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11
(4:00-5:00 PM KFAC) Suppe's "Fantasia Overture," Kalinnikov's "Symphony No. 1 in G Minor," and Goldmark's "Queen of Sheba" ballet music.

(8:00-10:00 PM KFAC) Prelude to Act I of "La Traviata," by Verdi, Brahms' "Second Symphony in D Major," and Wanda Landowska, harpsichordist, in Handel's "Suites for Harpsichord."

FRIDAY, MARCH 12
(4:00-5:00 PM KFAC) Mousorgsky-Ravel "Pictures at an Exhibition" and Humperdinck's delightful "Hansel and Gretel Suite."

(8:00-10:00 PM KFAC) Beethoven's "Eleven Viennese Dances," and the Brahms "Sonata in E Minor for Violin and Piano," with Emanuel Feuermann, violinist, and Theodore van der Pas, pianist. Also music of Berlioz, Mozart and Haydn.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13
(11:00 AM-2:00 PM KFAC) Met's production of "Peter Grimes."

(2:00 - 3:00 PM KNX) All-Brahms program.

(3:30-4:30 PM KFI) An all-Italian program featuring works of 19th and 20th century composers will be given by Toscanini and the NBC Symphony. Selections heard will be Marco Bossi's "Intermezzi Goldoni," "Flight of the Lovers from Chioggia," by conductor-composer Mancinelli, who was at the Metropolitan Opera from 1894 to 1903. Ferruccio Busoni's "Berceuse Elegiaque," an infrequently played work; Verdi's "Otello Dances," which were composed for the French version of "Otello," but are not contained in versions performed here; Tommasini's "Carnival of Venice," composed in 1929, and Rossini's "Semiramide Overture."

(8:00-10:00 PM KFAC) Soloists, chorus and orchestra of La Scala, Milan, in complete opera "Il Trovatore," by Verdi.

SUNDAY, MARCH 14
(6:15-6:45 AM KNX) Raymond Allard, bassoonist, is guest on E. Power Biggs organ recital. They play Galliard's "Sonata No. 1 for Bassoon and Keyboard." Biggs offers music of Bach and Handel's "Royal Fireworks Music."

(12:00 Noon - 1:30 PM KNX) Robert Casadesus.
(4:00-5:00 PM KFAC) Weber's "Euryanthe Overture," MacDowell's "Second Concerto," and Bach's "Suite No. 3 in D Major."
(8:30-9:30 PM KFI) Standard Hour.

MONDAY, MARCH 15
(4:00-5:00 PM KFAC) Music of Gluck, Schubert, and Montclair's "Les Plaisirs Champêtres," as played by Henri Casadesus and The Society of Ancient Instruments.

(8:00-10:00 PM KFAC) Walter Gieseking, pianist, plays Brahms' "Five Intermezzi," and Ravel's "Gaspard de la Nuit."

(9:00-9:30 PM KFI) Jussi Björling, Swedish tenor, makes his debut on the "Telephone Hour," with the dramatic operatic aria "Ay Fuyez, Douce Image" from Massenet's "Maïon." Three concert pieces comprise his offering, Leoncavallo's "Mattinata," Rachmaninoff's "Lilacs," and Orlando Morgan's "Clorinda." The orchestra plays music of Casella and Franz Lehar.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16
(4:00-5:00 PM KFAC) The Schumann "Quintet in E Flat Major," played by pianist Artur Schnabel.

(6:30-7:30 PM KECA) Serge Koussevitzky conducts the Boston Symphony Orchestra in Shostakovich's "Symphony No. 5."

Good Taste Determines Fashion

Certainly with the urgency of our times and the great speed with which everything, including ourselves, is forced to move, no one will be foolhardy enough to be hampered by too long, voluminous skirts, oversized hats and sleeves and Victorian ruffles and laces.

If we must change—and surely change we must—then let's have the clothes that are right for 1948 rather than those of 1868, 78, 88, 98 and 1900. Most women want clothes to "do something" for them, to be functional and to be suited to their way of life. Most American women do not feel up to making "production" of going to market.

Also, with shortages of fabrics of all types, too much fabric is as poor taste as filling your plate with meat when there is a shortage. It is time for women to use common sense and take a look at ourselves, find out how tall, how wide or how slim we are and balance our figures. If our shoulders look badly rounded, then we should keep them moderately square. If we need long jackets, then let us wear five gored skirts or pleated skirts.

If we can wear flared coats and swirl skirts, by all means we should wear them.

Find the skirt length that looks just right and then stick to it. If you can wear a pretty hat and veil, wear it. If you can't, have your hat made to suit your profile.

Gloves, bags and shoes are very important. They too are so much better when geared to the

TYPHOID FEVER DANGER IN TRAVEL IN MEXICO

Two persons are critically ill in Los Angeles county general hospital suffering from typhoid fever apparently contracted in Mexico, according to Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, Los Angeles county health officer.

Comparison of case histories has revealed the fact that both persons visited Ensenada, Mexico within a few days of each other. In both instances, the disease developed approximately two weeks after the victims had returned to Los Angeles.

County health officials are urging inoculation for typhoid fever for anyone contemplating even a brief trip south of the border. They are also cautioning travelers to be extremely careful of drinking from unapproved water supplies or eating raw fruits and vegetables while in Mexico.

Taste is more important than style. Fashion is not to be followed blindly. It is like a table of hors d'oeuvres. Take the things that you can use to make you more attractive and better dressed to your type.

Don't risk being ridiculous because you think you are in fashion. Well dressed women select and balance and weigh. They co-ordinate their clothes and accessories and also spend less by so doing. Don't waste anything and give away everything you cannot use.

'AND ALL I ASK IS A TALL SHIP' . . . Swift and graceful as it cuts the waters off Miami Beach, the "Cyclone," Cuba's entry in this year's Lipton cup race, inevitably calls to mind the memory of Sir Thomas Lipton. Except for his tea, the amateur yachtsman asked for little but "a tall ship and a star to steer her by." Sometimes called the world's greatest sportsman, Lipton spent millions over a period of many years in an attempt to bring the yachting title to England.

Much Ado About Accessories

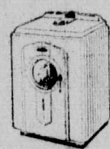

For every blouse there's a gamut of wonderful skirts—pleated ones, gathered ones, flared ones—a few padded through the hips to gain still more fullness. For street-wear they are 13" and 14" from the floor, for dancing under the moon they are ankle length and longer.

This season there is much ado about petticoats. They have come out of hiding to show crisp white eyelet ruffles, and swooshing striped or solid taffeta flounces beneath a full sweep of skirt. In addition to making a pretty hemline, they contribute fullness from the hip down.

SILK SURVIVES THRU THE AGES

One woman, the wife of a famous Chinese emperor, Si-Ling by name is credited with having originated in 2640 B. C. one of our most important textiles—silk. She personally devoted herself to the care of the silkworms and invented the loom. Until 300 A. D. this secret of sericulture was jealously guarded by the Chinese. Eventually some Koreans were sent from Japan to China to engage competent people to teach the arts of weaving and preparing silk goods.

From this obscure beginning has sprung an industry that prior to the war was one of world-reaching importance. Today an effort is being made by our government to re-establish the silk industry in the position it held before Pearl Harbor.

There is no doubt that silk is on its way back. Pure silk in solids and prints, silk shantung, silk taffeta and silk satin are once again appearing in designers' collections in street dresses, suits, cocktail dresses and ball gowns. Vibrant colors can be achieved in silk because of the fine, lustrous fiber. The very feel of silk is a luxury in itself, yet the fact that silk can be easily laundered is appealing to those who prefer to preserve the freshness of a garment by personal laundering. Couturiers praise the draping qualities of silk which lends itself to soft or bulky puffs with equal grace of line. Durability is another inherent quality.

NOW TAKE BLOCKS. For the past untold generations, the kids' blocks have been plain cubes of wood with ABC's, and sometimes crude pictures of zebras, pigs and crabs. Now they have blocks with as many accessories as a hot rod. For instance the "Jingle Blocks" we receive at the Balling Baby Shop. They're plastic, light weight and durable. There's a jingle bell inside each block. There are upper case letters LIKE THIS, lower case letters like this, script (like hand writing), Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3) and Roman numerals (I, II, III). There are big clock hands so that you can arrange a large clock on the floor with the hands in the middle and teach little Desdemona to tell time. There are geometric patterns on one side of the blocks so they can arrange all kinds of designs. There's a jingle bell inside each block.
